

You're Invited!

Come to our next Clutter Confrontation Workshop at either the Marshall Community Center or the Firstenburg Community Center.

These interactive classes offer processes to create open space and demonstrate the financial, psychological and physical impacts of clutter.

Businesses will be able to develop strategies that control and manage paper, inventory and resources. Home dwellers can set up “keep or purge” criteria, apply the Six Ds of Downsizing and learn to detach from sentiment.

Call the community centers for directions and registration. Specific class times, locations, tuition and numbers:
